Silver Streak

published by
STEINMETZ HIGH SCHOOL
CHICAGO • ILLINOIS

Within the cover of this 1952 edition, the Silver Streak offers Steinmetz Spice of Life "Recipe For Success." In the past eighteen years thousands of your school friends have followed it, with satisfactory results. It is heartily endorsed by all "Good School-keeping" magazines. Give it a trial.

Recipe For Success

Place in a school-shaped bowl a generous sifter of teachers and a batch of eager kids. Blend well. Add to this concoction a good scoop of lively clubs well spiced with enjoyment. Beat in vigorously a full measure of highly seasoned body-building ingredients. Shake over all a dash of salt to tone down the fresh particles. Stir the entire combination constantly for four years. Then turn out the complete mixture in a globe-shaped container and garnish with happy hearts within a border of Silver and Green diplomas. Follow the directions exactly and success is guaranteed.

Mr. C. J. Richardson, Principal... Speaks

THE FOUNDATION FOR SUCCESSFUL LIVING

"Take a full measure of integrity, a reasonable portion of intelligence, and mix well with an abundance of ambition and hard work. Stir in some of the milk of human kindness, season with the golden rule, baste frequently with a good sense of humor, bake in an atmosphere of culture and refinement, and serve with the necessary knowledges and skills.

Yield: A life full of service and satisfaction."

Mr. W. B. Herrick, Assistant Principal... Says

"Education is for the purpose of developing the individual so that he will be successful in blending material and skill to make a worthwhile life."

All successful Recipes call for Seasoning.

Fall, Winter and Spring at Steinmetz are well seasoned with lessons, in full measure, a dash of tests, a heap of grades and a sprinkle of tears now and then.

Memory Gems for Departing Seniors

Mrs. Elma Boughton, Dean of girls; Mr. Carl Welin, Dean of boys; Miss Marie Haley, Social Studies, records; Miss Margaret Boller, Adjustment Teacher.

Steinmetz faculty may be divided into three groups: the administrative department, the teachers without divisions, and last, but definitely not least, the division teachers. The administrative group does what its name indicates; the teachers without divisions are the ones who have some special activity that requires extra time; the division teacher has charge of all the records, programs, counseling, attendance and anything else that might arise concerning her group which numbers from thirty-five to forty-five pupils.

Mr. Edward Ruzicka,
Counselor of
January 1952 Class,
Baseball coach.

Miss Gertrude Herbert, Art; Miss Catharine Landrigan, Spanish, Annual; Miss Grace Peterson, Gym, Dancing; Miss Geraldine Rolence, Head of Gym Department, Miss Loretta Sullivan, English; Mr. Albert Sweig, Bookkeeping.

That genial looking gentleman that you see going about the halls is our new engineer, who has come to take Mr. Bade's place. Mr. Bade retired in December after seventeen years of faithful service at Steinmetz. Mr. Durkin's pleasant manner has already won him many friends.

Patience Plus Time Equals Accomplishment

PARENT TEACHER ASSOCIATION

Under the competent leadership of Mrs. W. O'Neil, president, Steinmetz P.T.A. has increased in membership in the past year. These good mothers are ever ready to get on the band wagon and do more than their share for the dear "school in the West". They aim to make their meetings educational as well as sociable and have had book reviews and talks on interesting subjects.

Upper picture: Seated at table: Mrs. Watson, Mrs. T. Johnston, Mrs. Gosy, Mrs. W. O'Neil. Standing: Mrs. Mader, M. J. Smith.

Lower picture: Seated: Mrs. D. Koegle, Mrs. S. Smith, Mrs. G. Moon, Mrs. J. Williams, Mrs. H. A. Boehm. Standing: Mrs. Becker, Mrs. Adams, Mrs. A. Clouston, Mrs. J. Craig, Mrs. E. Bartlet, Mrs. W. Turk, Mrs. A. Just, Mrs. M. Singer.

Holidays The Cooks Are Gay

LUNCH ROOM If you eat at Steinmetz Cafeteria, you'll be served by Miss Blake and her congenial staff. Early each morning their work begins, preparing dishes that will appeal to both eyes and stomachs of the happy partakers of creature comforts. During the lunch periods, they are busy serving the hungry throngs. After the inner man is pacified, the clean-up parade begins. There's no time for idlers there.

Row 1:

It's What You Put In It That Counts

Come, come, little Freshies,

Get your "Stuff" together;

Don't dilly-dally 'round the place

Get ready for that four year race.

There's not much time to sit and chat,

There's two more years to hang your hat.

It Looks Like Things Are Taking Shape

Careful, careful, Junior folk,

You've done those three years well,

Your efforts seem to take the shape

Of a cap and gown and graduate.

Fantasy Of Roses — Jr. Prom 1951

Beautiful "gals", plus handsome "fellas", plus the rainy, but unforgettable evening of June first, equals the Fantasy of Roses—Junior Prom of 1951—that decorated gym, the ever popular Wishing Well, the smooth rhythm of Belloc's Orchestra, the Grand March, our kind advisors, Mrs. Gehant and Miss Deignan, all come back to us as a beautiful dream.

Lower right:

Outdoor scenes lure the Art students to the beautiful campus for inspiration.

Commercial Department

Opposite Page:

Upper left: "Try it on sir," says the affable clerk, "we want you satisfied."

Commercial Law: Upper right: Students learn rights of buyers and sellers in the eyes of the law.

Banking: Center: Taking a glimpse of life in a bank proves very interesting to commercial pupils.

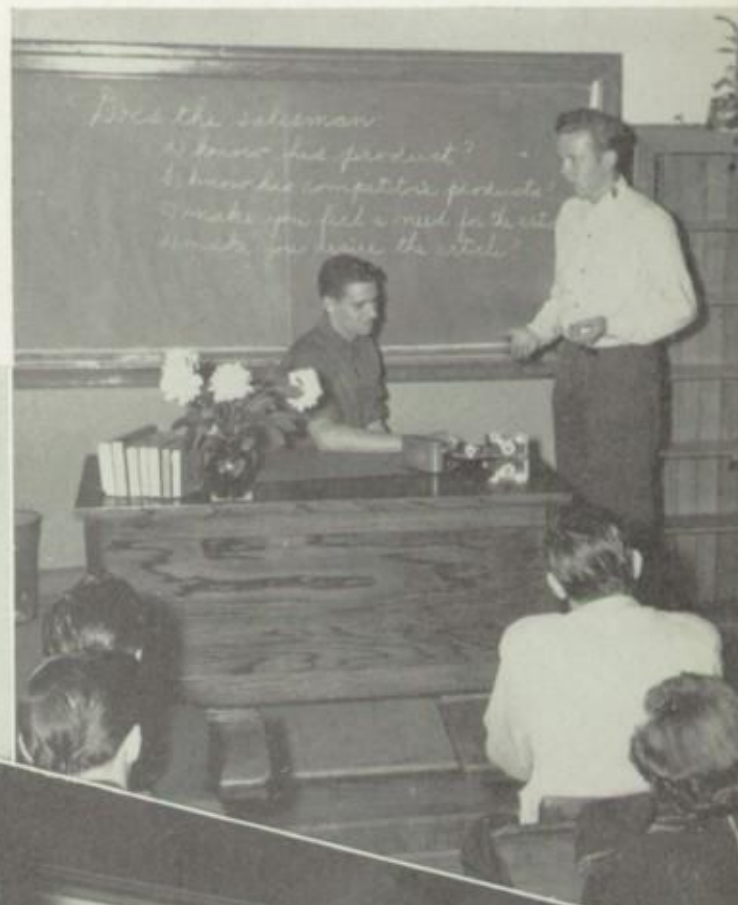

Traveling: Lower left: Members of sales classes are repeatedly instructed in the importance of courteous attention to each traveler.

Sales: Upper right: "Know your product thoroughly before you try selling it to others," says the teacher.

Salesclerk: Lower right: "I'm sorry sir, we don't have that but we do carry this, which we recommend." Remember, friendly clerks make the sales.

Typing: Circle: Knowing how to type is an accomplishment that comes in handy many times.

Bookkeeping: Large picture: The business world is hungry for bookkeepers. This looks like a good crop coming up.

English Department

Large center picture: Advanced English classes discuss pieces of literature, sometimes in committee, other times in class groups.

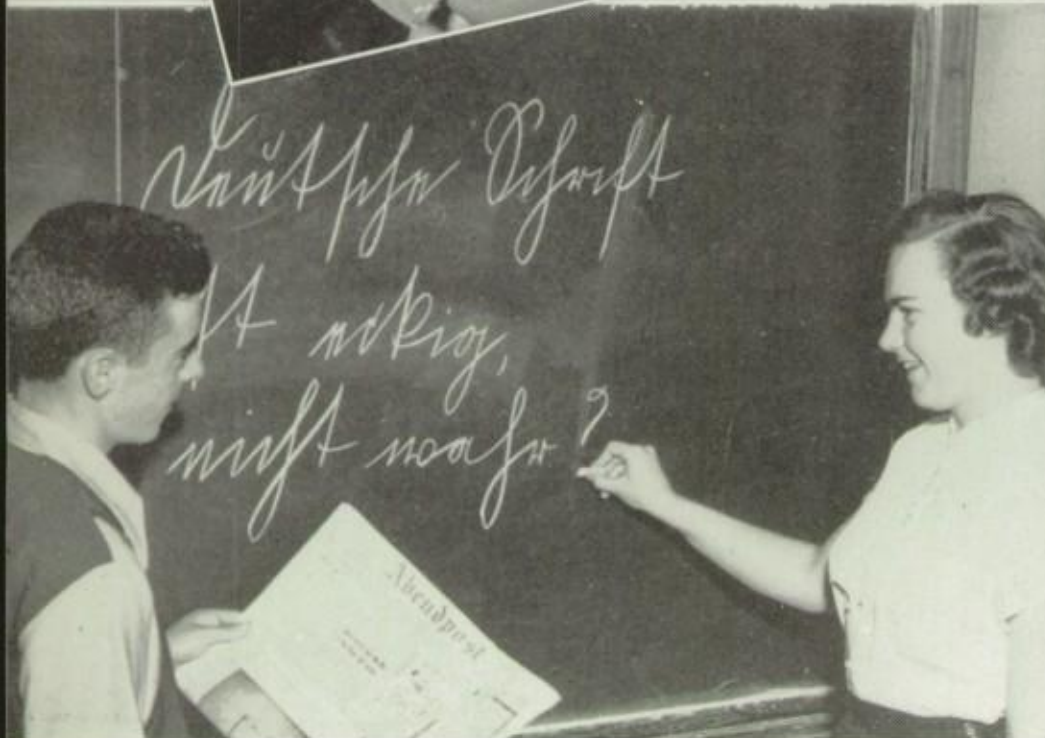

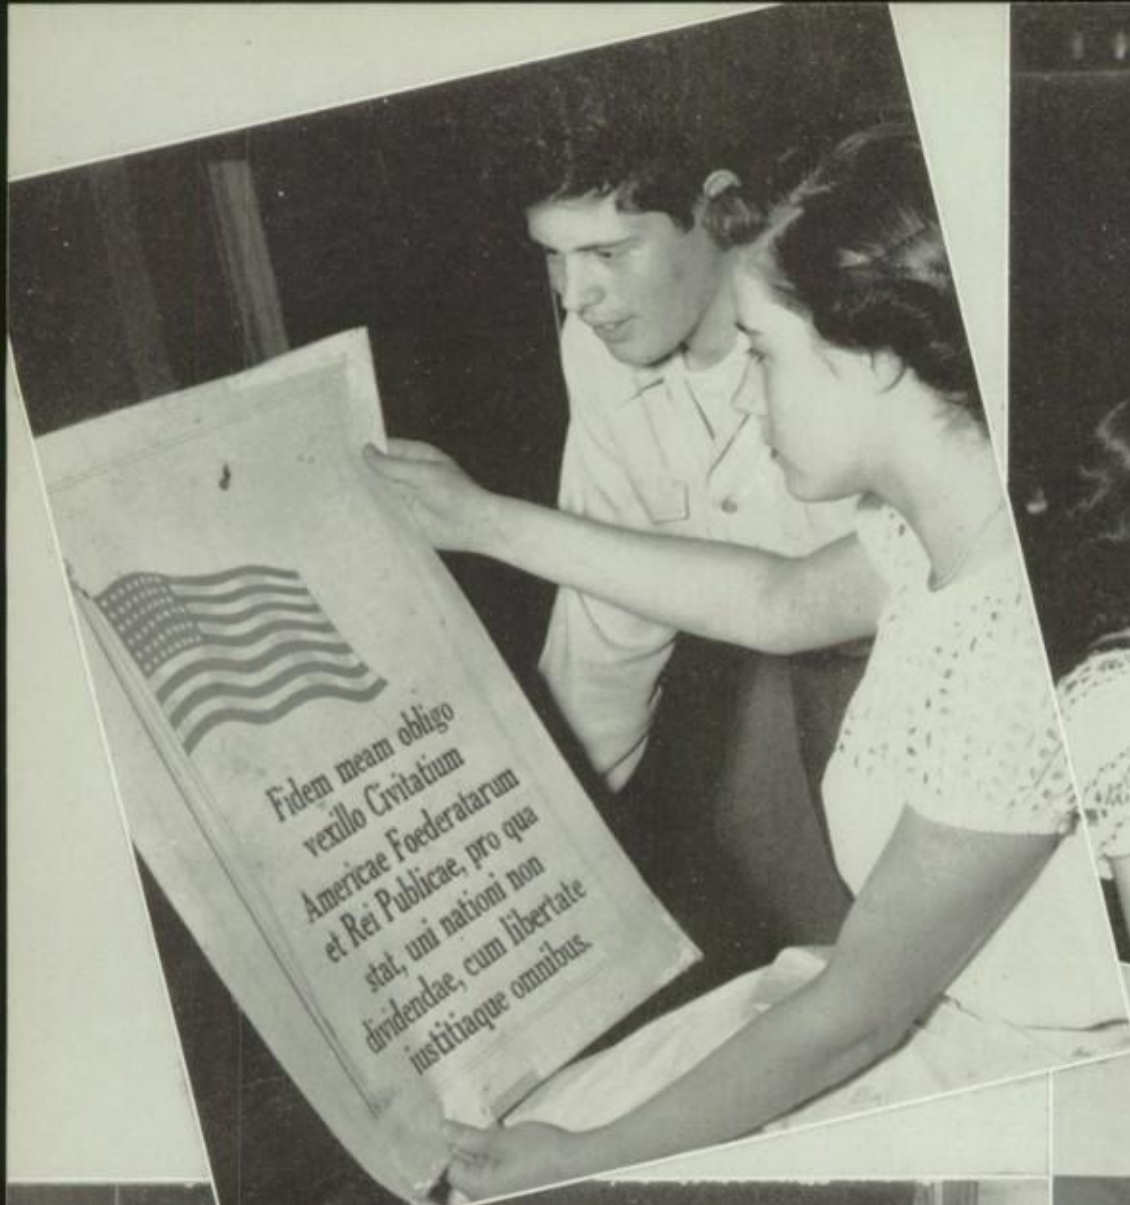

Lower left: Fundamentals in Dramatics are offered to anyone who feels an urge to act. Everyone is required to appear in some role.

Upper right: Hie yourself to a corner, friends, and prepare for those coming book reports.

Lower right: Samples of creative writing are placed on the board to examine for good topic sentences.

Language Department

Spanish: Lower right: South American friendship is fostered in all Spanish classes. April 14th is always commemorated.

Language Department

Italian: Upper center: Stories read in class give pupils glimpses into Italian peasant life.

French: Upper right: The French teacher has made many trips to France and has brought back first hand information about French dances and dress.

Polish: Circle: Pronunciation is improved by frequent use of records in Polish played before the class.

Mathematics Department

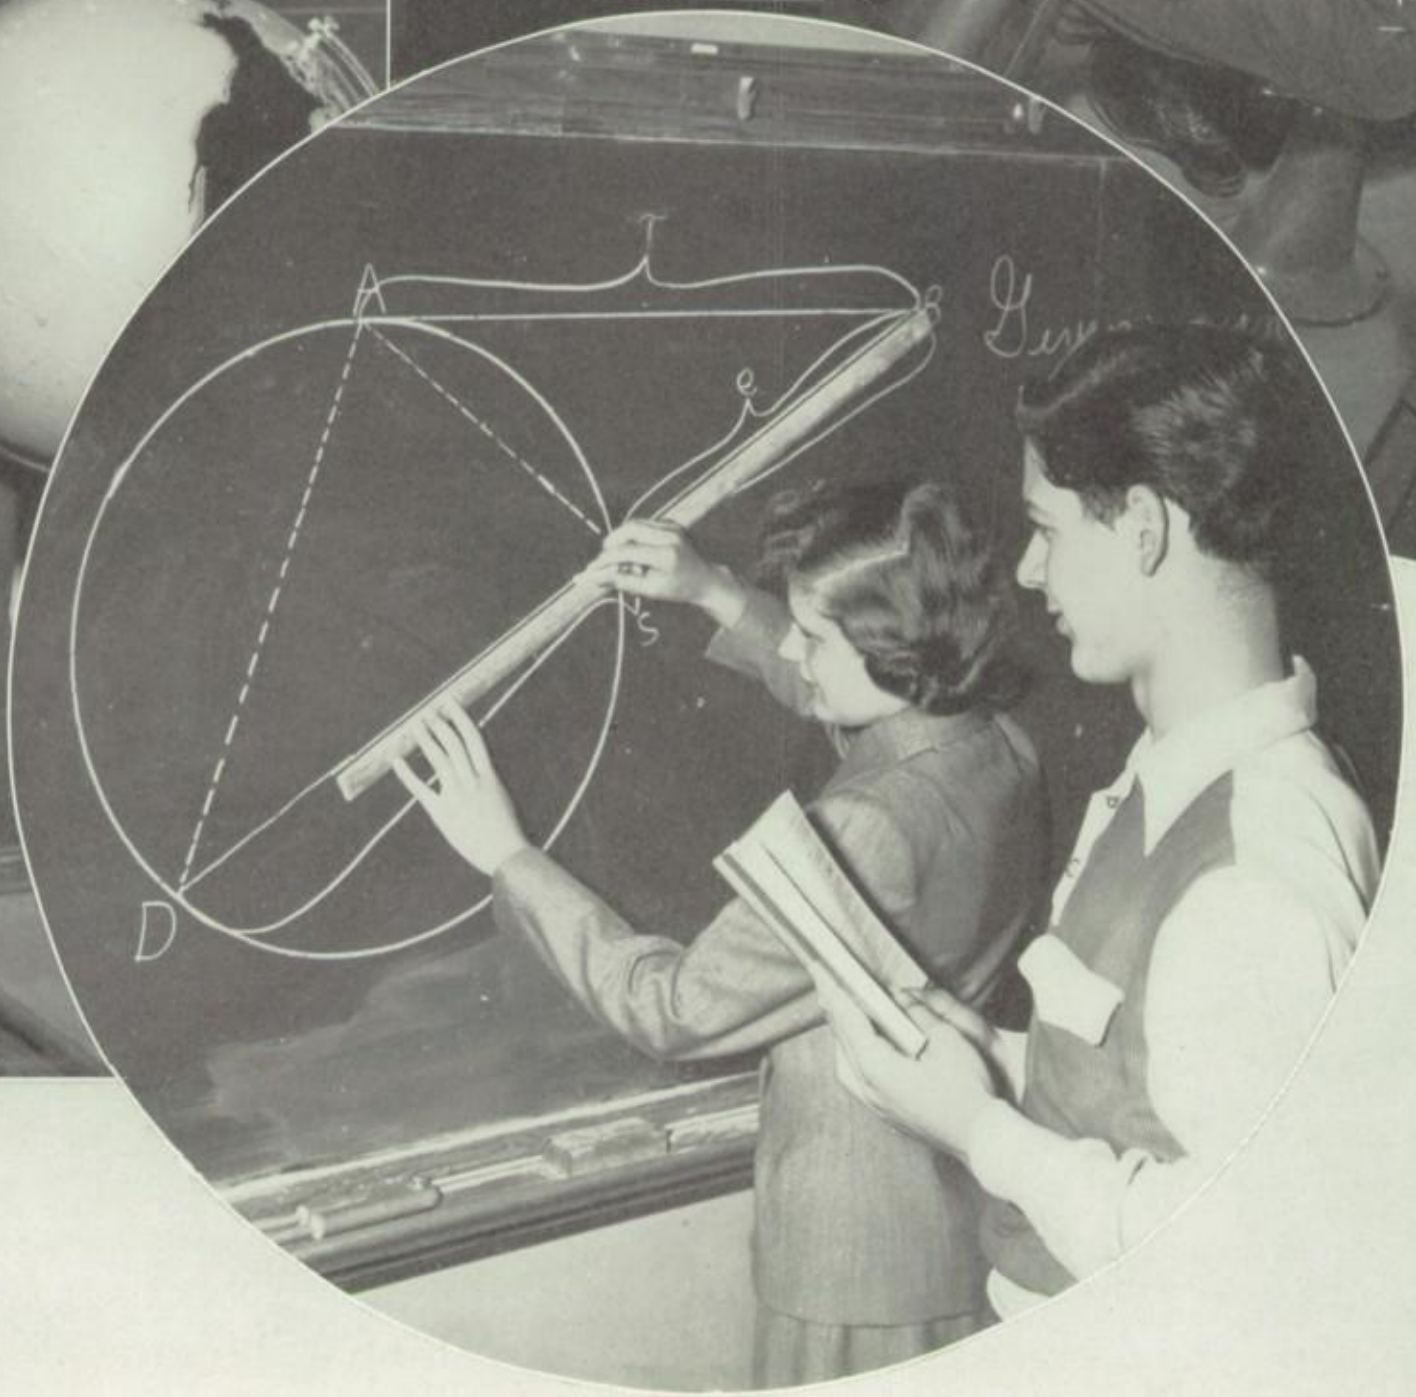

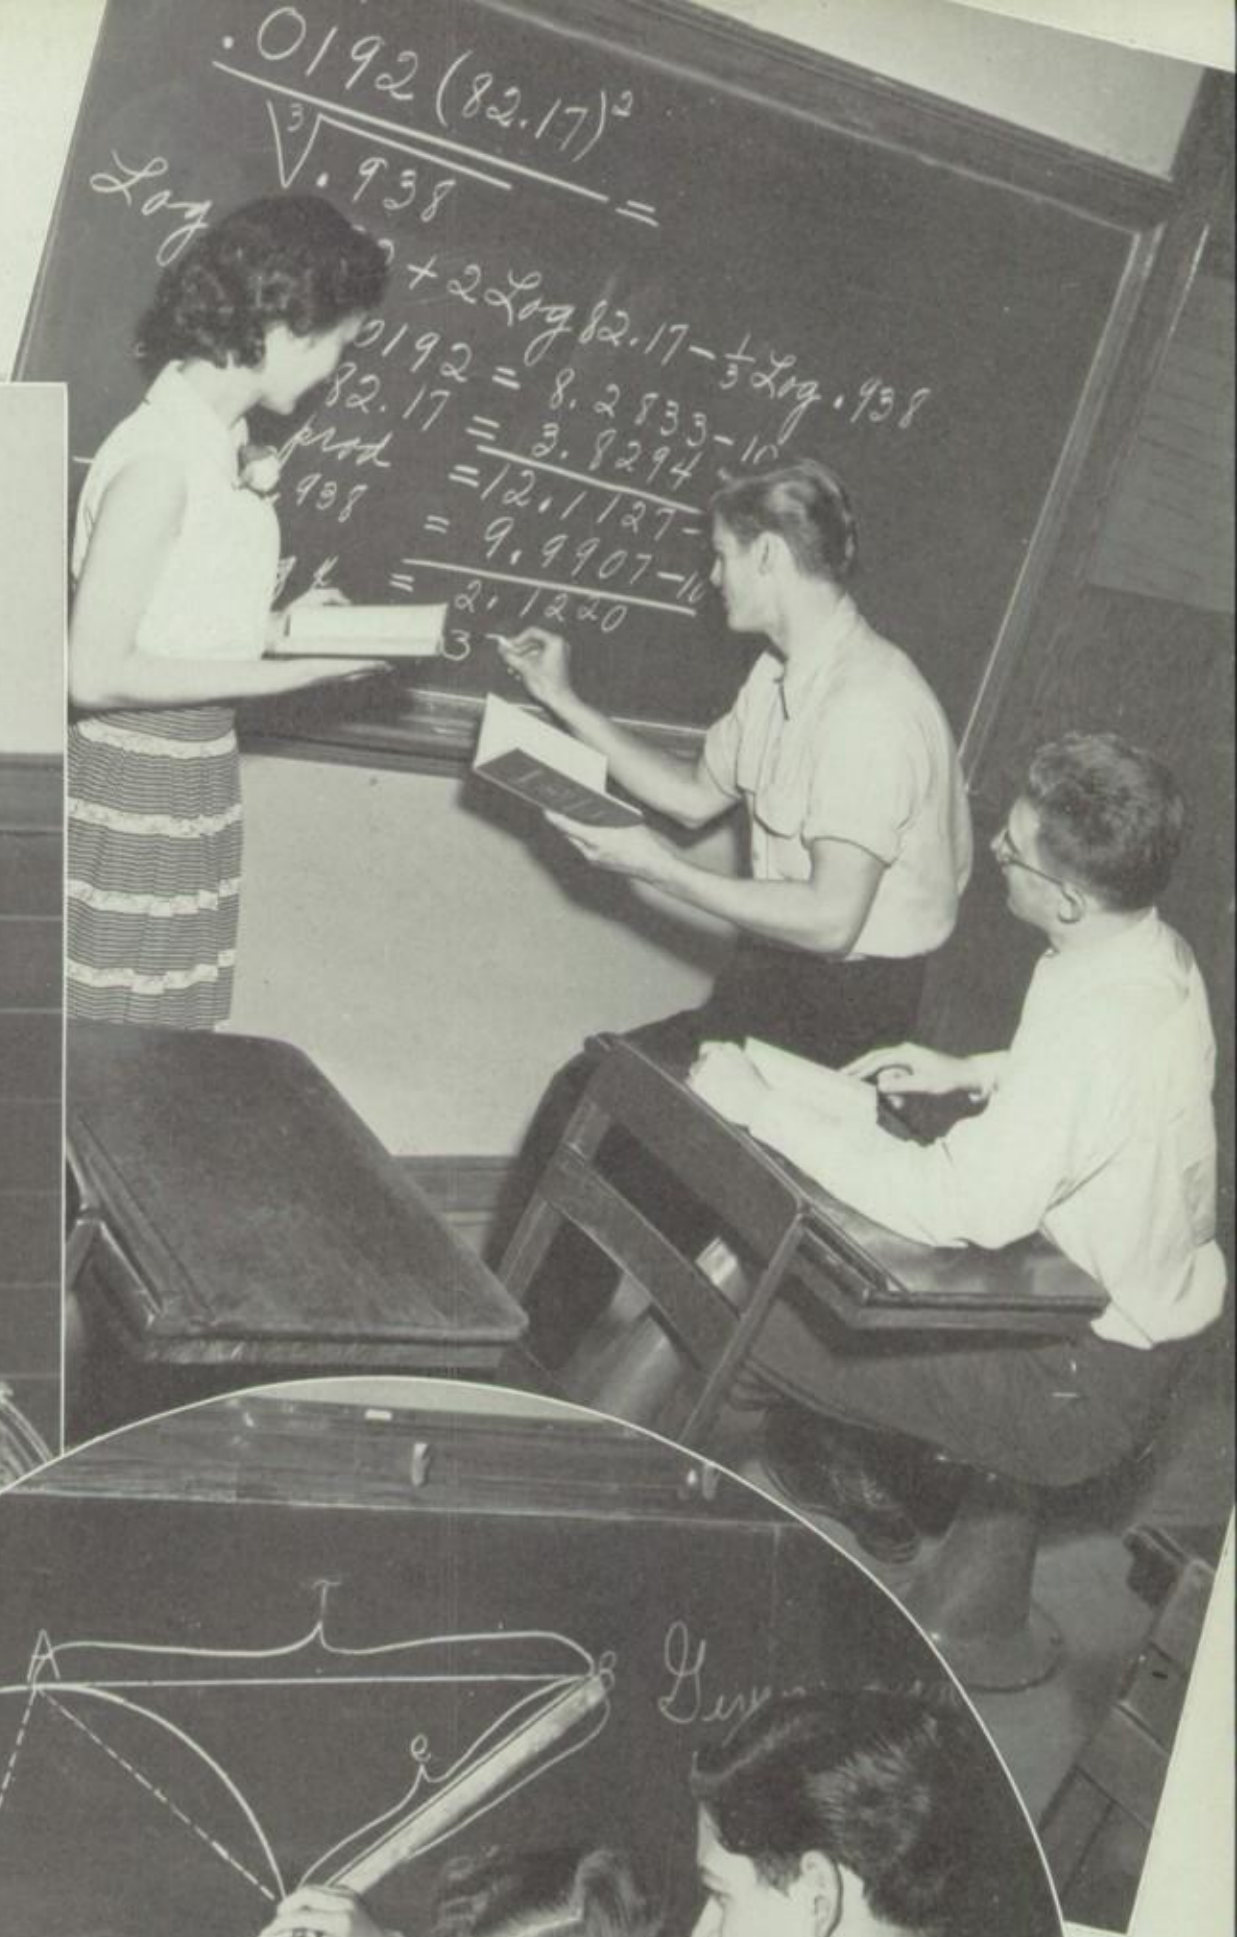

Pre Flight: Large picture: Boys especially are interested in this course. Steinmetz is one of the few schools in Chicago who offer it.

Graphs: Lower left: Making graphs and learning to read them is always interesting to Mathematics classes. It requires accuracy and concentration.

Trigonometry: Upper right: The higher you go in Mathematics, the greater becomes the challenge to your thinking apparatus. Trigonometry is a brain buster.

Geometry: Circle picture: Bisecting, trisecting and proving theorems are only a few tasks of Geometry pupils.

Social Studies Department

Circular picture: History Class reviews incidents of World Wars I & II featuring headlines and military equipment.

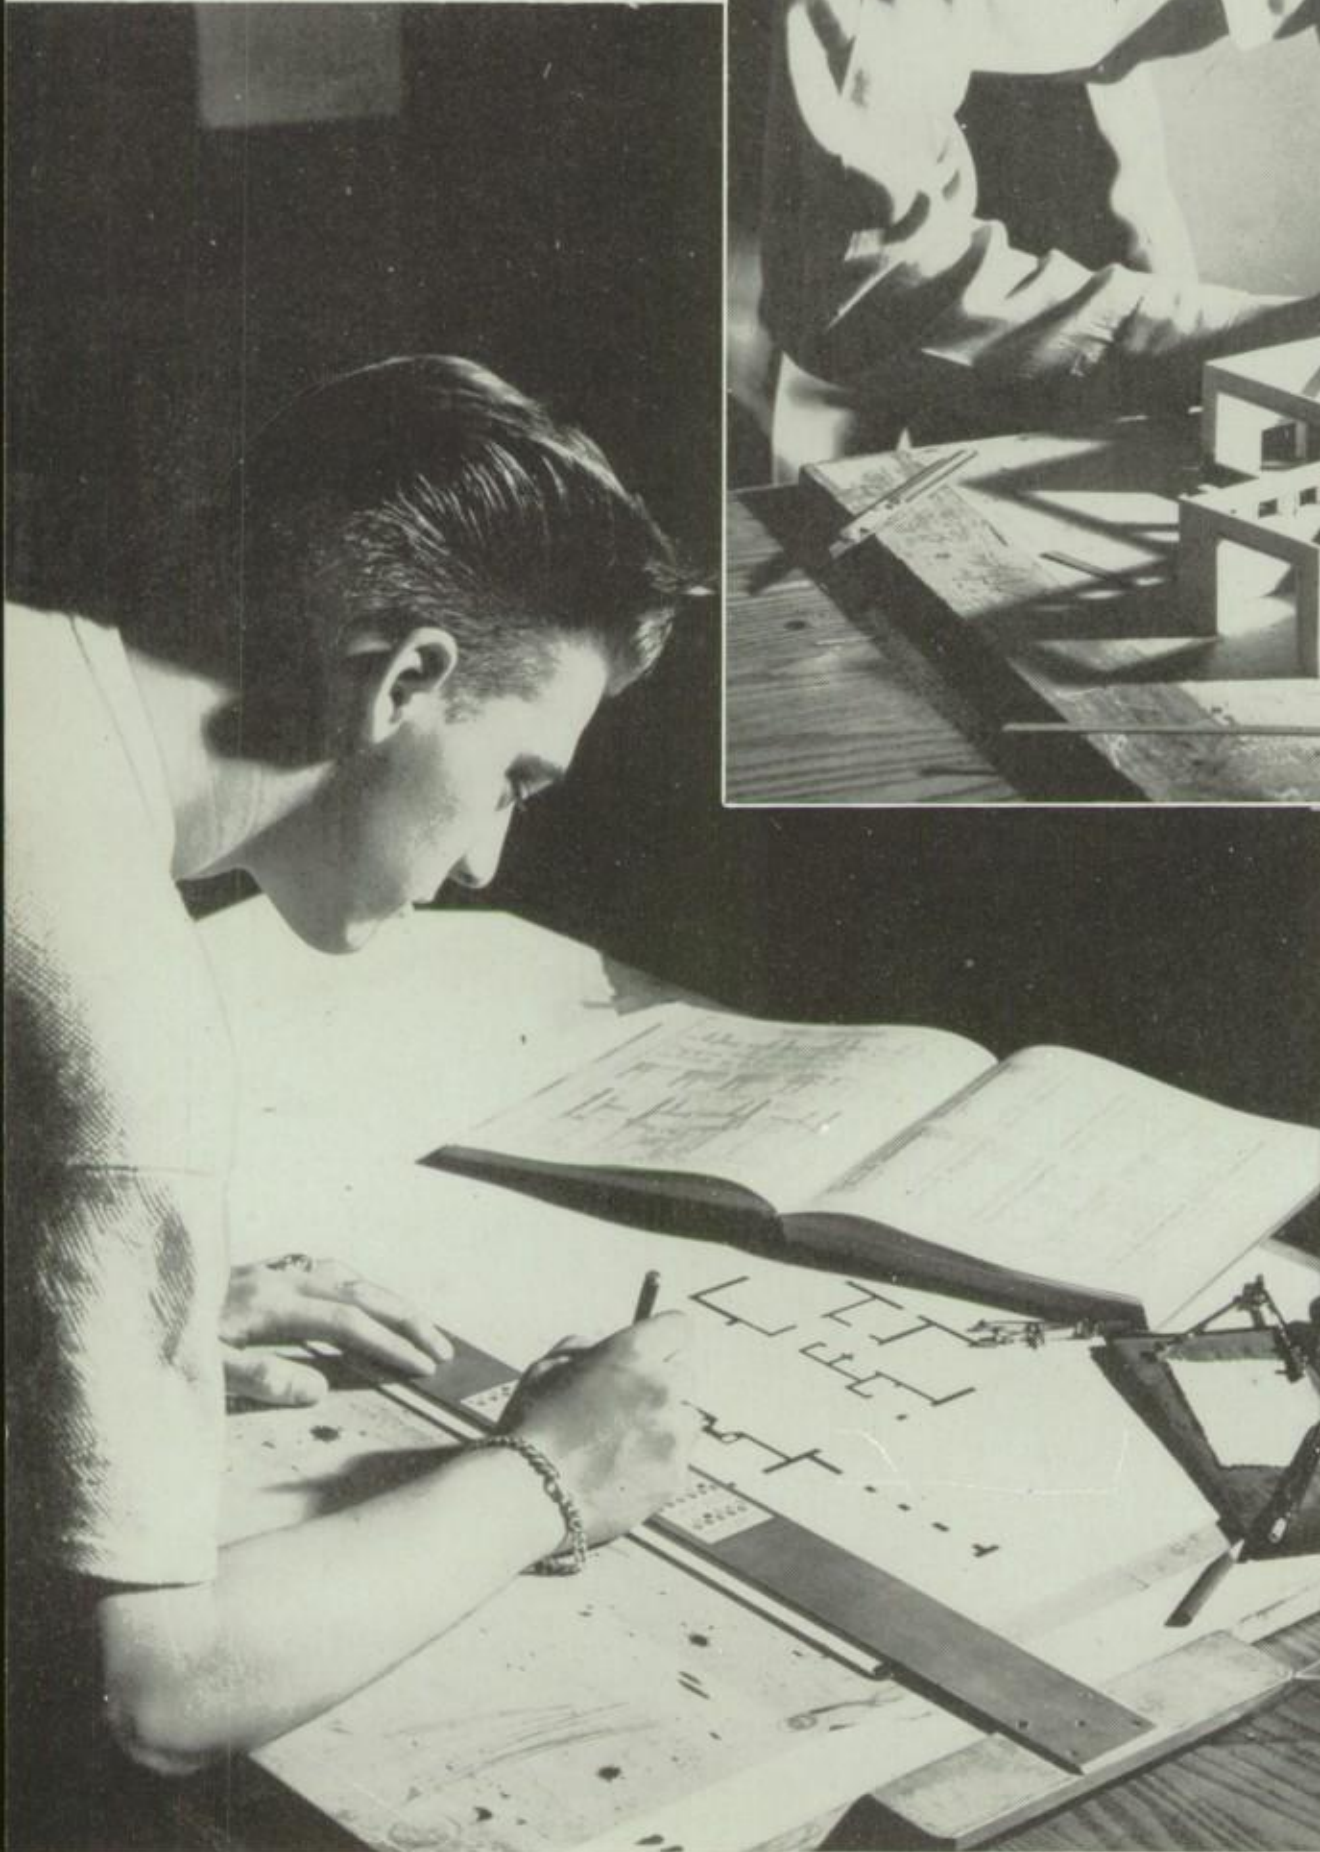

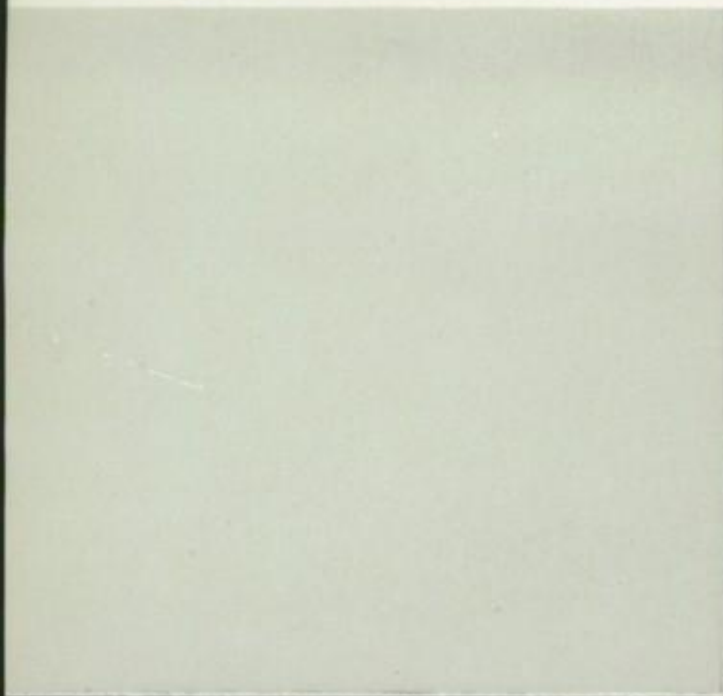

Upper right: To stimulate interest, a Social Studies class dramatizes a session in Congress.

The house in the center was planned and made by one of the Social Studies students.

"How to Live a Happy Home Life in Your Community" is one of the units studied.

Three bus loads of students toured the Public Housing Project district in Chicago. Some parents, a teacher and representatives from the Housing Project accompanied the group.

Technical — Industrial Arts Departments

Upper right: Homebuilding is all the rage. Technical classes offer first class lessons in it.

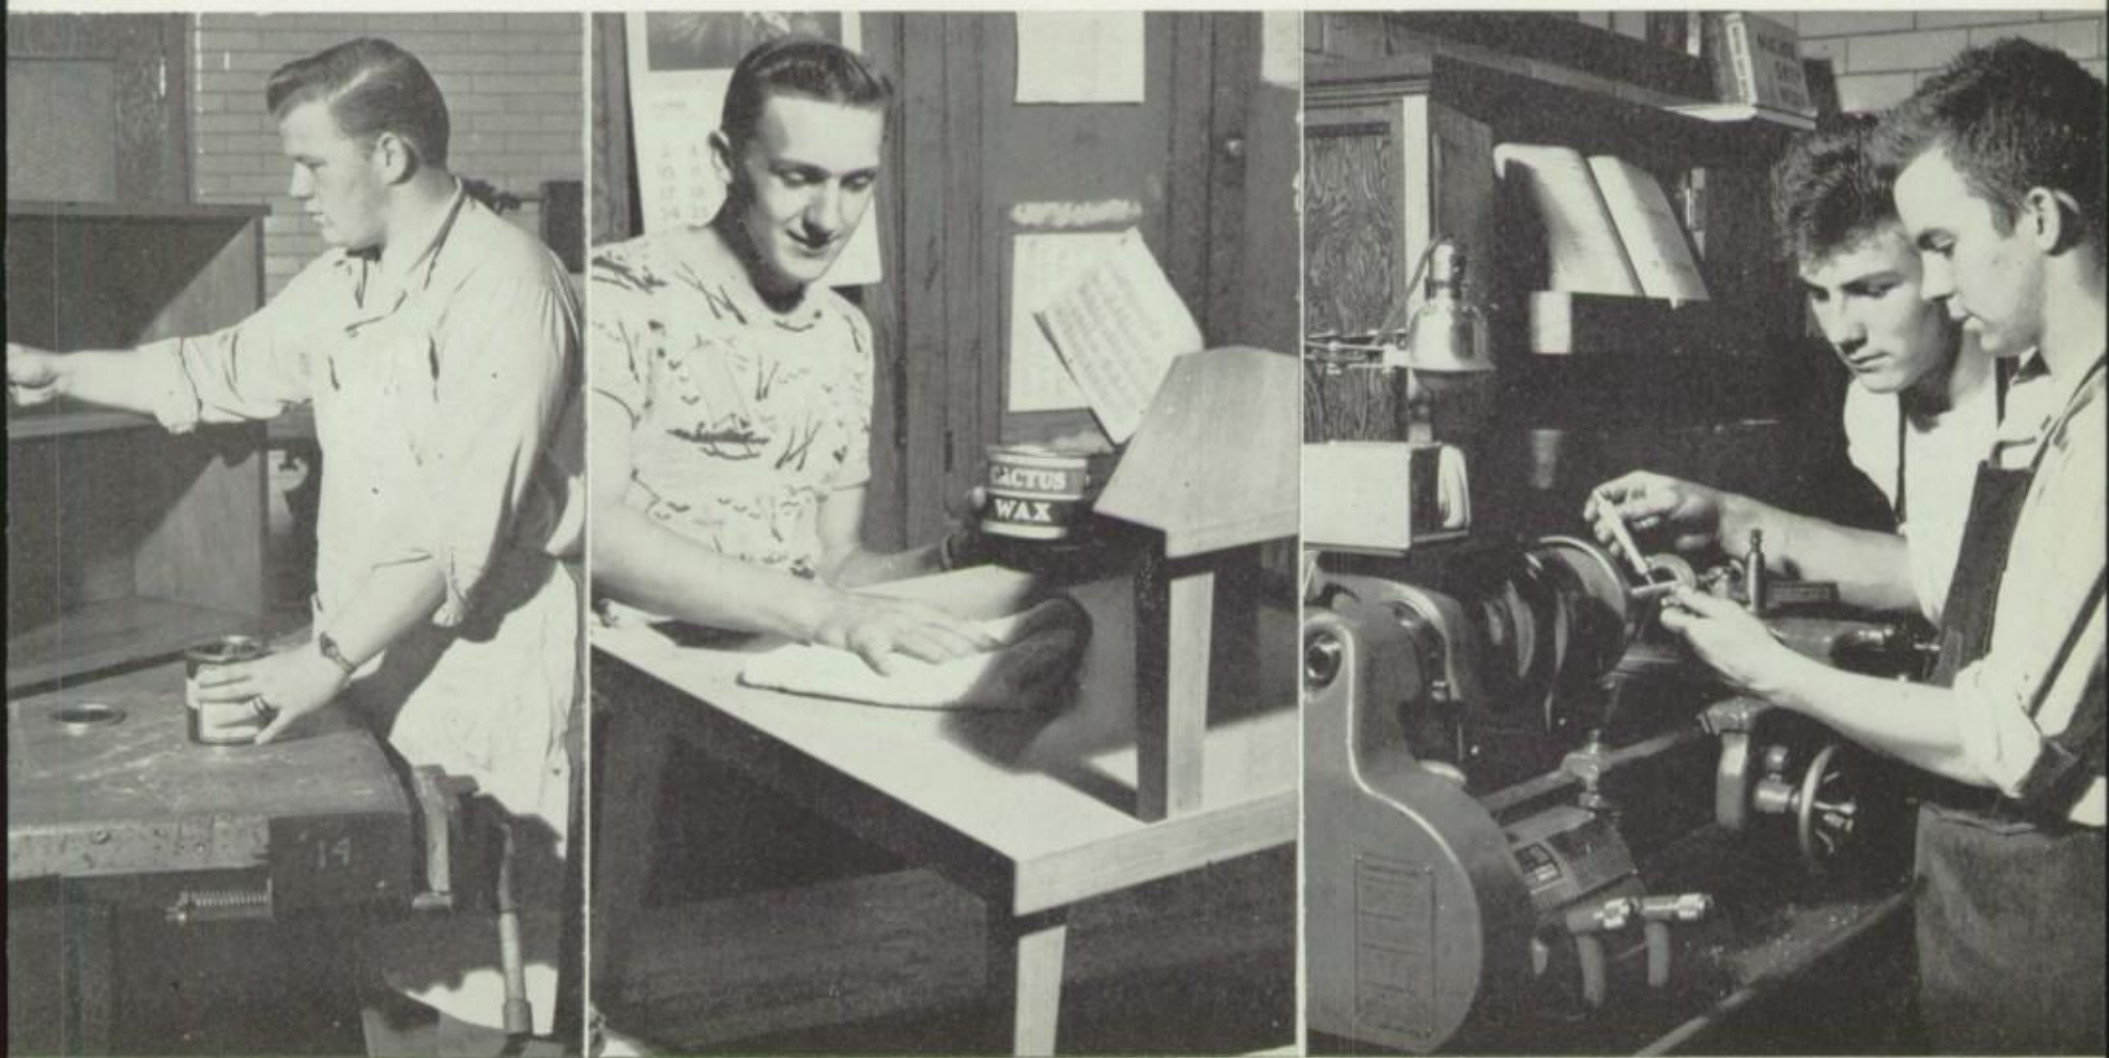

Lower left: Planning is a very important part of building. This boy is bent on making his plan an accurate one.

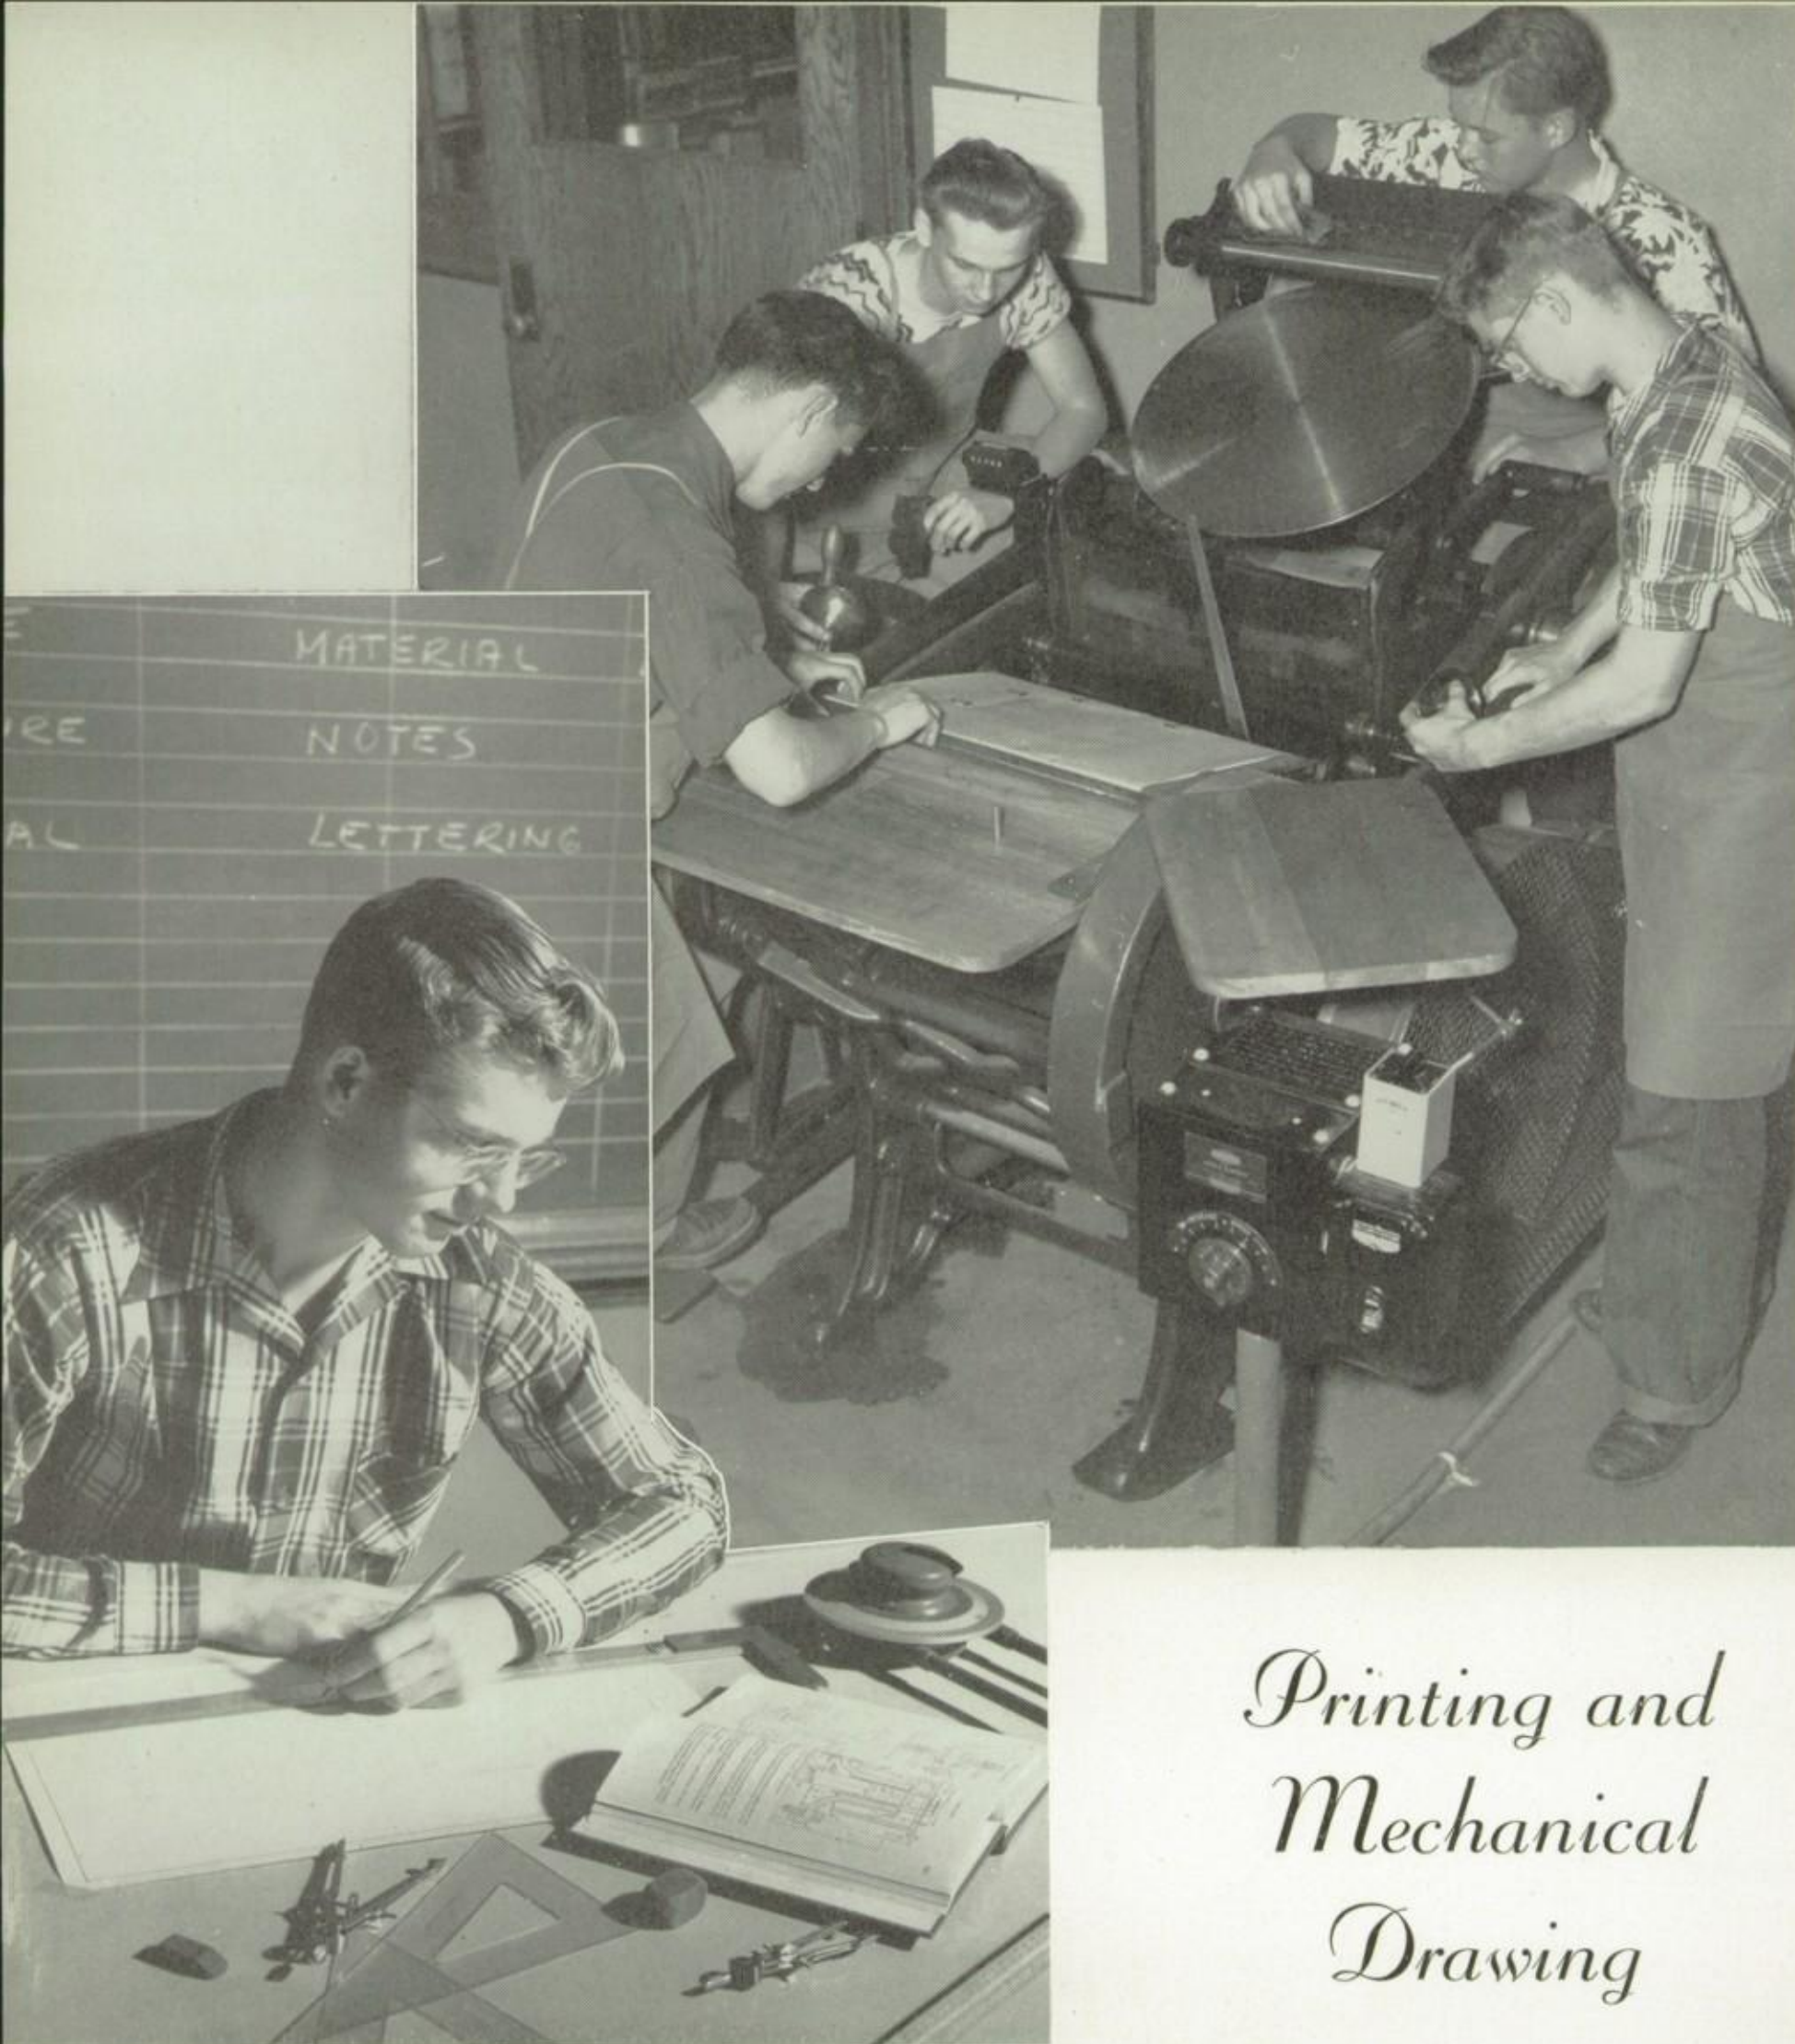

Lower right: Beginners in Mechanical Drawing are being instructed in making auxiliary views.

The Gordon press is on display,
It helps young printers on their way.
Programs, tardy slips, and bids,
Are rolled out weekly for the kids.

Lower left:

A draftsman he'll be,
With compass and square,
His houses will feature
Designs that are rare.

Household Arts Department

Upper left:

Modern mixers mix the batter,
Brand new ovens failures shatter,
Layers are a golden brown,
It won't be hard to let them down.

Upper right:

Lay it on the pattern right,
Cut it as it says,
Baste it, mark it, do your best,
Then let the "Singer" hum the rest.

Lower right:

Waffles are a favorite dish,
Mixing them is fun,
Cooking lassies make a batch
The like of which is hard to match.

Lower left:

When the dish is finished,
The cooks must try it first,
Around the table set so neat,
Waffle makers take their seats.

Lower center:

Fill the icing gadgets,
Squeeze them here and there,
Write the name of some one
And you'll be his lady fair.

General Science Department

Large picture: A class in General Science is looking at a film strip on electricity.

Circle picture: An interesting study in communications is being carried on in this class.

Lower right: Do you know what produces sound? You will, after you become a member of this class.

Botany Department

Upper left:

Come to me, oh reptile dear,
Of you I'm not afraid,
I'd like to study you up close,
And boost my Science grade.

Lower left:

There's a little fuzzy hamster,
Sitting in a cage,
Who gets more attention
Than the printed page.

Lower right:

Let's study a flower
It's depths we'll explore,
So unfold your petals
So we can see more.

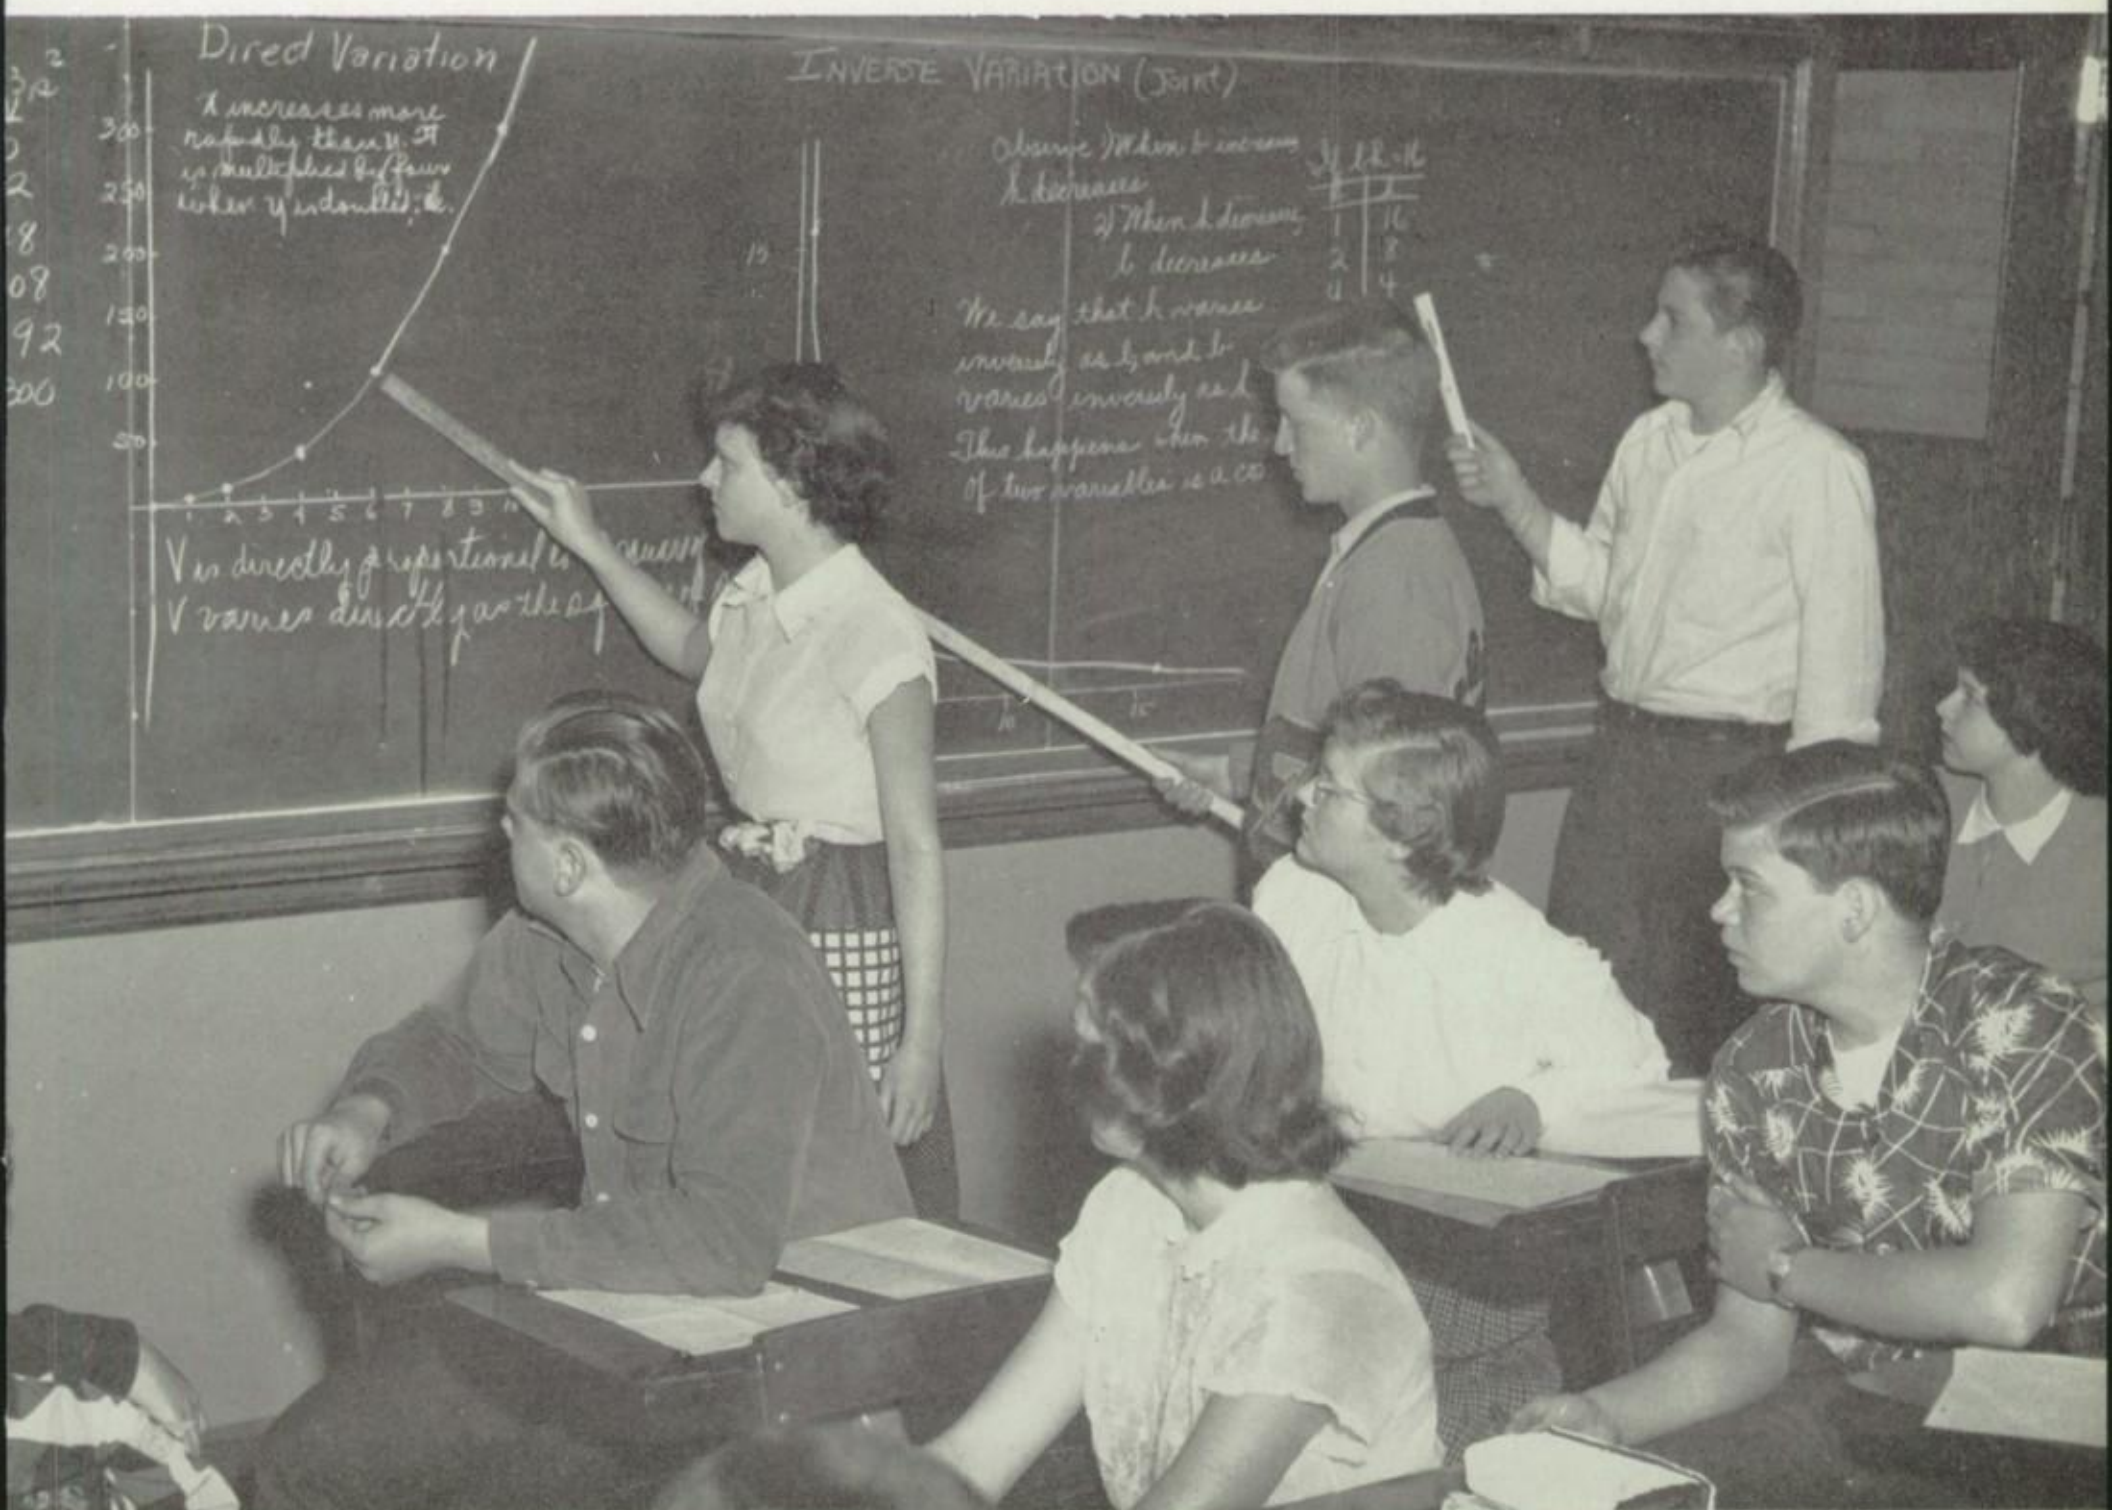

Science Department

The upper picture to the left is a common sight in the Physics Laboratory. Girls as well as boys enjoy the experiment "Distillation of Air."

Lower left: Measuring the expansion of heat is the experiment going on in this view.

Picture below: Mathematics has a close relationship with Science. Here is a class in Algebra listening to an explanation of the assignment of the day.

Sayre Sprouts

The Sayer Branch which is located on Sayre Avenue and Cortland Street, is about two miles from the Main Building. It takes care of the overflow of membership from Steinmetz. There are about two hundred pupils there, and each semester about thirty of these move over to the Main Building. Mr. Walter Beck is the teacher in charge of the Branch.

Editorial Echoes Emerge From Sayre

If you wish to know what goes on at the Branch, buy the BARK, a periodical, supervised by Mrs. Gilligan and issued several times a semester. The Branch a'iso has a staff working in conjunction with the Steinmetz Star; this staff conducts a news exchange between the two schools. The Star has a column devoted to happenings at the Branch, and in this way students from the Sayre Branch do not lose contact with their friends who have joined the Big School.

January Class of 1952 — Officers and Sponsor

When the January Class chose its officers, they showed good judgment. Where could four harder workers be found? They will tell you, however, that the inspiration to do, came from their enthusiastic and friendly sponsor, Mr. Ruzicka. Because the class numbered only one hundred and eighty three, Mr. Ruzicka was able to call all by name, and so he came to know them all personally.

LILLIAN ADDALIA... "Lill", the cook, picks a nook with Dick... caters to steaks... thinks swearing is a crude habit... likes them tall and dark... parents out-shine all... happy on skates... G.A.A.

It's The Loveliest Night of The Year

Senior Prom — December 1951

It's a wintry evening, and the moon is high; and so are the spirits of the prom-daters. Who cares if the snow flies and the wind blows cold? It's Prom Night. It's warm and cheery in the ballroom at the Evanston Women's Club. Flowers there are in great plenty, and the scent of perfume fills the air as the beautiful maidens glide along with their prom-dates of the evening. These are the moments they have so longed for; they must make the most of them, for in a few short hours all will be over, and the night of nights will pass into the vast sea of memories.

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY Membership in the N.H.S., a nation-wide organization, requires an E average, a good character, some degree of leadership and a willingness to serve. The semi-annual breakfast and the induction service are high spots in the calender of events. Miss Sylvia Gruener is the sponsor.

Music Must Take Rank As Highest

SYMPHONY ORCHESTRA

Music lovers have a wonderful opportunity to join one of the most active and cultural clubs of the school — the Symphony Orchestra. Mr. Groom, the conductor, is always ready and eager to receive new talent. Young people! This is a club that will get you around. Not only does the orchestra play for assemblies, evening performances and graduations, but it is also invited to perform at outside functions. Each year it is entered into the city finals, and has often been rated an E or better.

Of The Fine Arts — Spencer

SYMPHONY ORCHESTRA

Hear Ye! Hear Ye! people with musical talent! Get in touch with Mr. Groom today; put your name on the list and share your God-given talent with others who enjoy good music. Their repertoire is varied enough to accommodate members at many levels. The class meets in Room 400 everyday.

JUNIOR CHOIR

The Junior Choir offers a splendid opportunity for Steinmetz girls to learn how to enjoy singing in their leisure hours, under the competent guidance of Miss Josephine Farr. Their renditions at the semi-annual concerts prove to be quite an attraction. Their singing of "Broadway Hits" was a special high-light of this year's Music Festival.

Give the Band the Right of Way

CONCERT BAND

The Band expects to enter the City Band Concert at Harrison High School, and it is hopeful that it will bring home some honors. Everybody enjoyed the Band's performance at the Music Festival last fall. If you attend our football games, you will have to admit that there's plenty of pep behind the Band's step. Space doesn't permit to mention here the innumerable times the Band's services are requested; and the willingness with which it is rendered is often the topic of discussion. Mr. Ivan Feldman is the director.

GIRLS' CHOIR

For many years the Girls' choir has been on the job offering beautiful music for assemblies, Music Festivals, P.T.A. meetings and various community affairs. High class songs are selected by Mr. Groom, the sponsor. All the work is done in parts and many difficult songs are worked out and presented to the students for their enjoyment.

BOYS' CHOIR

Miss Ruth Kilgour, sponsor, says although the choir numbers fewer members this year, they make up for the decrease by the many beautiful voices in it. They have two barbershop quartettes. They sang for 8A open house, gave the "Romeo and Juliet" skit and presented an assembly.

Future Gabriels Blow Their Horns

INTERMEDIATE BAND

Our Intermediate Band, under the baton of Mr. I. Feldman, is composed of a group of students who are being trained to play together so as to be qualified for membership in the Concert Band. As participant in this club, one has to play easy marches and waltzes and light overtures at the beginning of the semester. Then he proceeds to the more difficult compositions as the semester advances.

STARLETS

From Mr. Groom's choir emerges a group of singers who are called upon to perform at activities where solo numbers are wanted or where dramatic interpretations of songs are needed. They take an active part in the Annual Song Festival at Steinmetz.

CAMPUS CREW

This is the organization that played for the Valentine Dance this year. They are generous with their time and talent when they are called upon. Dance music is their specialty, but they do other types as well. Mr. I. Feldman is their sponsor.

Singing Is Their Hobby

MIXED CHOIR

This group has grown to a very capable ninety-two voice organization. They are concentrating all their efforts on an elaborate Spring Concert for the benefit of the school. It is six years ago since the last Spring Concert took place. Needless to say Miss Ruth Kilgour, choir director, is very enthusiastic over the project and is anxious to show what beautiful music these well blended voices can give.

RED CROSS

Are you a member of the Red Cross? Yes, indeed, you are. Oh, didn't you know that? That Civic Ticket did the trick. This year Miss O'Connor and her thirty-five members filled over one hundred gift boxes for foreign countries. What a friendly act? The club always tries to meet the requests sent out by Junior Red Cross Headquarters.

CAMERA CLUB

This snappy club displays its wares in the Library each year; from the exhibit there, the most unusual shots are chosen and placed about the corridors. The club holds outings to look for interesting subjects. Friendly criticism takes place at the meetings. The club will never be happy until the much discussed dark room comes to light. It seems to be looming in the horizon now.

ENTRE NOUS

"A recipe for happiness" — that's the French club. Getting together every two weeks under the sponsorship of Miss Sechler, these French enthusiasts "parlent Francais" exclusively at all their meetings. Letters to students at their age level who are attending the Lycee, the secondary school in France, occupy some of their packed hours. Join the French club and be gay.

PAN AMERICAN CLUB

Portrayal of the "Nacimiento" and the "Posadas", which are typically Mexican, was the Pan Am's contribution to the Christmas assembly this year. The club, together with the Spanish classes, presented a beautiful American flag to one of the leading high schools in Mexico City, where it was received with an elaborate ceremony, and the name of Steinmetz High School appeared in many leading Mexican papers. Miss Thorsson has been the club sponsor since its inception.

SENIOR GERMAN CLUB

The general purpose of this club is to further interest in becoming acquainted with the German way of life as compared with ours. German songs and games are a part of their program. At Christmas time they collected and mailed "pocket books", those handy little novels, to several of the Steinmetz boys who were in Korea. Mrs. Lydia Fausel is in charge of the club.

POLISH CLUB

One of the oldest clubs in the school is the Polish Club. It is composed of students who are interested in Polish customs, dances, songs and music. They have lively meetings because many of their members are dexterous dancers and good singers, and often entertain at the meetings. At their meetings, they often discuss the important part many Polish-Americans have taken in the history of our country. This spring they are scheduled to take part in a radio broadcast over the Board of Education station. When any large project is conducted by the school, this club is way up there on top in participation. Mr. Buczynski is the sponsor.

PRE-MEDICS CLUB

Students interested in medicine join this club. Miss Ornstein is the sponsor. Trips to hospitals, seeing movies and hearing lectures on new discoveries in medicine are the focal points of their activities.

CHESS CLUB

If you are thinking of making a new move in your recreation habits, join the Chess club, king of all clubs. It meets twice a month and Mrs. Childs generously gives up her time to be with these young knights.

DARDANELLES

"Service is their motto", and for Steinmetz it's "Special Service". Any first or third Wednesday of the month you'll find Miss Kilburn meeting with her Junior and Senior girls, who have made an E average, to plan ways to help others. This year something new was started; they had a Christmas party for the orphans at Lydia Orphanage. Santa presented each happy face with a package. Besides this the girls filled boxes for their "Give a Gift to a Yank Who Gave Campaign". On the entertainment side they held a wonderful party at Casa-Nova, conducted a bike hike, and sponsored a picnic. In serving for teas, the Dardanelles are always there to do their share.

STEINMETZ STAR

Here you have the busy buzzers that serve the school bi-weekly with the last minute, up-to-date news, sports and feature stories. Editors, columnists, reporters and photographers devote hours in the Star office striving to bring the news right off the fire. The Star, issued since the year nineteen hundred and thirty-four, can add another laurel to its many others. This year it has been selected as one of the thirty-one school newspapers out of twenty thousand competing in the Freedom's Foundation contest, for having one of the best stories. Mrs. Borg is the sponsor.

Future Distributors Of Education

FUTURE TEACHERS

If you are interested in becoming a member of one of the most noble professions, join the F.T.C. and find out the requisites needed to become a teacher. The world needs fine young people to prepare for this worthy work.

DISTRIBUTIVE EDUCATION

D.E. is a new course offered for seniors who wish to learn Retail Merchandising. Students are given two periods in Retail Sales and are required to spend at least fifteen hours in some store or service establishment. They receive a major credit for their work experience. Mr. Lawley is the coordinator.

KEY CLUB

The Steinmetz Key Club is a charter member of the West Belmont Kiwanis. The main purpose of this group is service to the school. They co-operate with the school administration as well as with other people in the community. Division teachers recommend boys, of high scholarship, from the 2B to 3A division groups. The meetings are held Wednesday evenings at the home or business address of some member of the Kiwanis. The Key Club is available to any new club needing help to get started. Entertainment is a big part of their program. Units have been sent to Great Lakes and Hines Hospital to entertain the boys. The club has charge of the clean-up and year end festivities.

Sentries Serve With Pleasure

HALLGUARDS

The Preservers of Precious peace are always busy as beavers keeping the halls spic and span. These waiting watchers are eager to gain points toward a service letter while serving their school.

As stairway snoopers they courteously remind you of your ups and downs.

The sitting sentries are responsible for the many compliments Steinmetz receives for its beautifully kept halls.

Watchful Eyes Guard Our Halls

HALLGUARDS

Our ever loyal silent sentinels ask the cooperation of the student body when it comes to paper picking. Running, loud talking and between class-lunches are frowned upon by the corridor "conners".

Each corridor is supervised by a member of the faculty who instructs her helpers in their duties, and who endeavors to impress upon them the necessity of being honorable guards.

GREEN CURTAIN PLAYERS

Fellow Thespians, "Lend me your ears!" Are you dramatically inclined, love to emote? Then enroll in a Drama class. If you show talent, you'll find yourself in one of the best clubs in the school. In February, Mrs. Haas, sponsor, director and hardest worker in the club, began casting for the Spring play. Weeks of rehearsals followed until the night of April 23rd, when "Seventeenth Summer" was presented to a packed hall. Each Fall a one-act play is presented for the enjoyment of all. Socially the Green Curtain Players' banquet made the club even more interesting.

LIBRARY CLUB

Members of this group must have strong arms, good eyes, and enduring patience; strong arms to handle the hundreds of new books, good eyes to satisfy their reading yearnings and enduring patience to check the books and keep track of the library slips. Since reading and teas seem to go together, these young ladies arranged a tea for the faculty last semester. It was a very festive affair. Mrs. W. MacBean, Director of Libraries, was the main speaker. Mrs. Walters and her assistants give the girls worth-while training in library procedure.

Dollar Days Are Dizzy Days

CIVIC TICKET The opening of each semester calls for hands in the pocket and out again with that Civic Ticket dollar for your room representative. It's a big deal. It includes contributions to all worthy causes, payments for all issues of the Star, admission to special assemblies, and attendance at semester parties. Remember the old adage "Tis better to give than to receive."

Heads Up! Let's Go!

SILVER STREAK REPRESENTATIVES

Well, Well! What have we here? Can you identify anybody in this kingdom of headless mortals? By the time these ardent workers finish collecting all the payments on the Annual pledges, they feel like beheaded beggars. Without their help, the Annual office would be at a great loss. However, the experience is good for these workers, and they earn two service points each semester while they are getting it.

SKATING CLUB

If you enjoy dancing around on shining skates to the tune of fancy waltzes and lively fox trots, and if you like to go whizzing along counter clockwise about the rink, mingling with familiar Steinmetz faces, consults Mr. Pitzele about admission to this fun-loving club, called Steinmetz Skating Club. It meets almost every week at the Hub Rink. Each semester a party is sponsored by them, and a part of the admission fees is turned over to the school. Each member is distinguished by a special pin designed especially for Steinmetz.

Quitters Never Win, Winners Never Quit

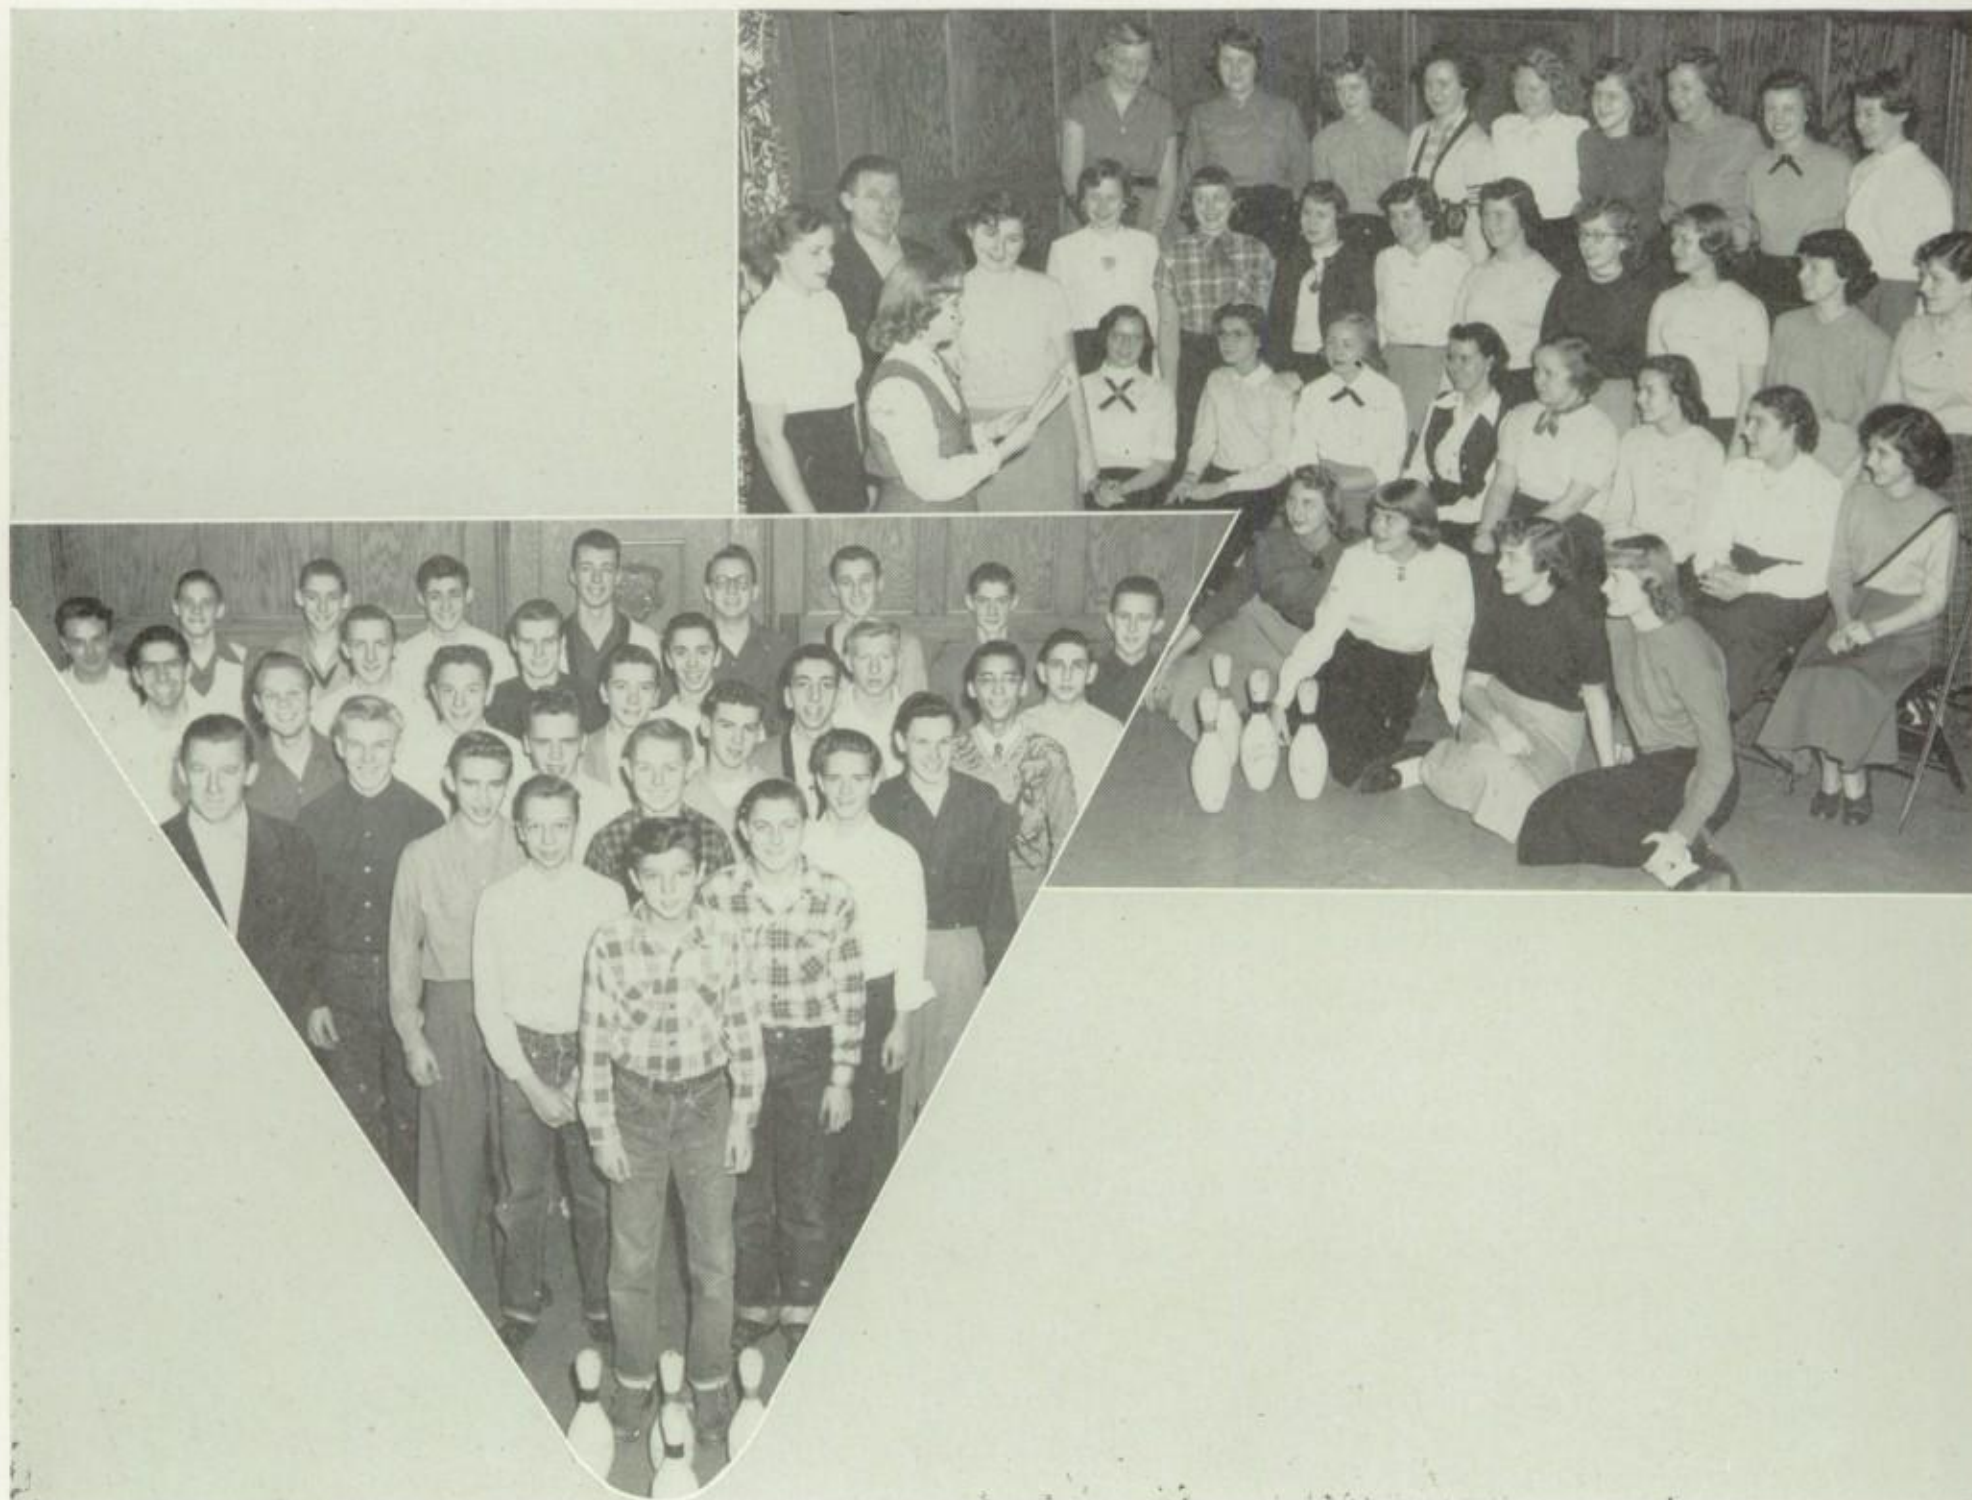

TRACK TEAM

Mr. Thompson's sprinters can be seen after school raising the dust on the campus track as they spin around the curves practicing not only for their own enjoyment, but also in anticipation of the competitive runs held among the various high schools. Pinderski seems to be in the lead.

GOLF TEAM

Any good golfer at Steinmetz is eligible for membership on the team. The team meets at Bunker Hill twice a week. On May 6, the State Qualification tournament took place. Two qualifying teams were sent to the University of Illinois to compete for State Championship. Last year Steinmetz finished third in the North side district. Their hopes are for first place this year. Mr. Holm, an expert golfer himself, sponsors the boys.

BOWLING TEAMS

It's fun; it's sociable; it's good exercise and fine practice. Mr. Holm, the sponsor, generously gives his time after school to supervise his "kids", as he calls them. Stratford is the place, and it happens once a week. Sixteen teams, four to a team, make up the group. Trophies went to Fitzgerald, Delnick and Giese. Five of the best bowlers will take part in the intra-school competition. Girls with perfect attendance will be awarded trophies of merit.

Varsity Mothers' Club

Several years ago, Mr. Lakin and some of the leading athletes called a meeting of the mothers of many of the athletes for the purpose of discussing how they could help out the various teams. From this conference sprang forth the present "Varsity Mothers' Club", now a very active group. They are always arranging affairs whereby money can be raised to buy part of the equipment for both major and minor teams. To be eligible for membership, the mother must have a son active on the Varsity Team.

SOCIAL DANCE COMMITTEE

A group of students, interested in making the Friday night socials a success, work with Mr. Welin and Miss Kilgour to plan novelties in entertainment for the dance patrons.

MR. DOWNEY'S WORK GROUP

Students interested in working part of the day and attending school the other part, meet with Mr. Downey, placement advisor, to seek advice on where to go and what to do.

R.O.T.C. BAND

The R.O. Band shines in all its glory with sparkling buttons and polished shoes -- neatness supreme -- Federal Inspection, community parades, school assemblies, and military gatherings call upon these fellows and girls many times during the year. Mr. I. Feldman is their sponsor and Ken Bryza is their leader.

BATON TWIRLERS

High-spirited strutters head all football processions. They swirl and twirl about, twirling in rapid rhythm those brilliant batons; and the crowd cheers as the gay riot of beauty and color performs. They furnish spirit and pep for the team and good entertainment for the spectators.

STUDENT COUNCIL

The Student Council has several new ideas in mind which they will attempt to put into practice before long. One project that they wish to undertake is an Honor Study period. They intend to start with a small group and gradually increase its number as students show a willingness to join. The Executive committee is sincere in this experiment, and they ask their fellow workers to help them in this worthy venture.

STUDENT COUNCIL

In the past year an advisory committee consisting of members, sponsors and faculty members was inaugurated. Their job is to plan projects most beneficial to the general welfare of the school. The Council office is the room off the North end of the main foyer. Plans are under way to redecorate and refurnish this office. It will be an attractive place to work in and should be an encouragement to the members to give their best to the school in the west. Mrs. Shabat and Mr. Weaver are the sponsors.

FOOTBALL TEAM

Steinmetz Streaks broke all records this year, chalking up seven wins and one loss, losing only to Harrison with a score of nineteen to nothing. This record was reason enough to round out the season with a colorful football dance featuring the football Queen and the members of her court. Mr. Vesel, the coach, is proud of the team and is keeping his fingers crossed for next year's boys.

JUNIOR BASKETBALL

Even though the Juniors failed to gain a spot in the coveted city play-offs, they compiled the finest record any Streak pony team has made. Jack Pulley, who placed fourth in the city junior scoring race and who smashed every existing record at Steinmetz, led the Juniors to a season that netted eleven victories in nineteen games. Jim Altobell, hard driving forward was the captain of the team.

SENIOR BASKETBALL

The 1952 basketball season was a huge success, as the Lakin-led senior team made the city play-offs for the first time since 1947. The over-all record was twelve wins against ten losses. The Streaks captured seven of their ten league games. Marshall, the West section champions, Wells, the runners-up, and a strong Austin five were the only teams to decision the Steinmetz five in league play. Steinmetz entered the Illinois Tech holiday tournament. They advanced to the second round of play before being defeated by Roosevelt, a team that proved a menace to the Streaks all season.

Go-Getters Get The Letters

LETTERMEN'S CLUB

The Lettermen's club, open only to boys receiving a letter in a varsity sport, has a membership of approximately thirty five boys. Mr. Lakin, the sponsor, works along with the boys on such projects as the Alumni basketball game with the football team. Their meetings are held every Wednesday morning in the boys' health room.

All Out For Breaking The Record

STEINMETZ STREAKS

Steinmetz Streaks have always had the distinction of proving themselves leaders in the baseball lineup. As this article goes to press, they are keeping their fingers crossed for another successful year. With Mr. Ruzicka at the helm and such terrific players as Rizzo, Anderson, Zwierzyna and Schulze, it's possible that Steinmetz may bring home a pennant for its Alma Mater.

LETTERGIRLS

Parties, hayracks and fun galore,
Are just a few things that lie in store
For these athletic lassies, the letter girls,
Who are deeply steeped in the athletic whirl.
They dish out good service with a smile,
And are earning some points all the while;
Miss Rolence sponsors this lively bunch,
Who love their meetings more than their lunch.

ADVANCED SWIM CLUB

This year Miss Rolence's water ballet surpassed all other years. The pageant selected the Easter Edition of any newspaper as its theme, and they worked out fancy swimming numbers around the various sections of the paper. It was a very unique performance and beautifully done. The two performances drew record crowds.

An Invitation To The Dance

Miss Peterson's dancing groups are the talk of the town; one has only to look at this array of ballerinas posed in ultra graceful dancing positions, to realize that there is sufficient reason for this club of nimble toes, rating the neighborhood spot light. Any time the school sends out a call for dance numbers, up comes quiet Miss Peterson with something that will suit the occasion, and in a short time her girls are all ready to whisk off the dance. The girls love the work, and the school thoroughly enjoys watching them perform.

Banners In The Breeze

R.O.T.C.

Lt. Kingery, now in charge of the R.O.T.C., is proud of the cadets who took Federal honors this year. The Rifle Team should receive special commendation since it was chosen to take part in the inter-scholastic and inter-collegiate Match; it was selected to fire in the National R.O.T.C. Firing Match. They were undefeated in nine consecutive shoulder to shoulder matches, total team points being 7,540.

Always Cooking Up Something New

SILVER STREAK STAFF

Dear Annual Buyers: We, the 1952 Year Book Staff, sincerely hope that you like the flavor of its latest concoction in Annuals. We'll guarantee that its chatter is easily digested, and we think that as you partake of its contents, your appetite for the Silver Streak will increase with each page. We, the laborers in the field, take this opportunity to wish our 1,950 subscribers a pleasant summer as we graciously bow out of the picture.

Head Cook and Crew Bow Out of the Picture

SILVER STREAK STAFF

As we take our final bow, we, the staff, must say before leaving, that we have had fun in (spite of the hard work) in getting this eighteenth Silver Streak production into shape. However if it were not for the cooperation and patience of all, it would not have been possible to produce this book. Special gratitude goes to the representatives, the entire faculty, the Star, the photographers, Mr. Solem and Mr. Galanti of Marshall Studio, and finally, the publisher, Mr. Hagerty, of Leander Company.
